New England's Monthly Numismatic Catalog

Fall Consignment Deadline is August 31

As a special service to Inventory Selections readers, New England Rare Coin Auctions has extended the consignment deadline for the 1979 New England Fall Auction from August 17 to August 31. This extension is only for Inventory Selections readers, and complete details concerning this excellent selling opportunity can be found in the enclosed letter from NERCA President Lee J. Bellisario. If you have high-quality coins to sell, we urge you to consider selling at the 1979 New England Fall Auction. After NERCA's performance at the 1979 A.N.A. Auction, where we realized over $4,150,000 for consignors — the most ever brought in by a single auction company at any rare coin auction — the world's most active bidders will be following New England auctions more closely than ever before.

In the middle of this month's Inventory Selections you'll find a special fold-out photo essay on the A.N.A. Convention. We regret that with the frantic buying and selling activity that resulted from the A.N.A., we were unable to produce a color insert this month. However, we hope you will enjoy the special fold-out section, and we are sure you'll be pleased with this month's rare coin offerings. Many of the items listed here were purchased at the A.N.A. Convention. All have been carefully graded according to New England's usual conservative standards.

Our New England Personal Service Card, introduced last issue, is still available to any Inventory Selections reader who would like to use our Approval Account and Deferred Payment Plan Services. For a free Personal Service Card application, call your New England Account Executive toll-free: 800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800).

Please note that the order in which we list some coin types has been slightly altered. Three Cent Silver now appears after Two Cent Pieces; and Trade Dollars now appear after Seated Dollars. These changes have been made so that our listings conform to the new 1980 Guide Book of United States Coins.

New England Rare Coin Auctions

from the desk of
LEE J. BELLISARIO
President, New England Rare Coin Auctions

Dear INVENTORY SELECTIONS reader:

"A classic floor battle of collectors." This is what I overheard one witness to this year's A.N.A. Auction say as the highest price ever for a U.S. inaugural medal ($32,000) was attained during the third bidding session.

This record price is not an isolated incident. Rather, it is an indicator of today's entire rare coin market. Despite the overwhelming amount of quality material available this past month at Auction '79, the A.N.A. Auction, and at the A.N.A. itself, prices realized for quality coinage were astounding. The A.N.A. Auction alone brought in over $4,150,000 for our consignors--the greatest amount ever realized at a numismatic auction by a single auction company. And on the A.N.A. bourse floor, millions more traded hands.

This is why I've chosen to tell you personally about our next auction: the 1979 New England Fall Auction. With bidding appetites for quality material growing daily, the New England Fall Auction should be an incredibly lucrative opportunity. It will be held on November 9-10 at the luxurious Hyatt-Regency Hotel here in Boston. This well-known landmark in a major financial center will make the auction easily accessible to the market's most affluent bidders. We will be promoting the auction heavily in COIN WORLD, THE NUMISMATIST, NEW YORKER and many other major publications, attracting enthusiastic bidders from all over the country and the world. And our own reputation will further attract eager bidders--because, following the A.N.A., the market focus on New England Rare Coin Auctions will be stronger than ever.

We know you will want to take advantage of this tremendous opportunity for high profits today. Call our toll-free "Auction Line" and talk with our Consignment Administrator, Susan Bradley, about selling your coins at the 1979 New England Fall Auction. I will personally examine and appraise all New England Fall Auction consignments. The number: 800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800), Ext. #223.

Sincerely,

Lee J. Bellisario

P.S. Although August 17 is our consignment deadline for the general public, New England will be accepting coins from INVENTORY SELECTIONS readers through August 31. We invite you to call soon.

The Location

The 1979 New England Fall Auction will be held on November 9-10 at Boston's luxurious Hyatt-Regency Hotel. Located on the banks of the Charles River, not far from Harvard University, the Hyatt is easily Boston's most famous resort. Its 14-story, pyramid-like exterior represents a fascinating architectural accomplishment.

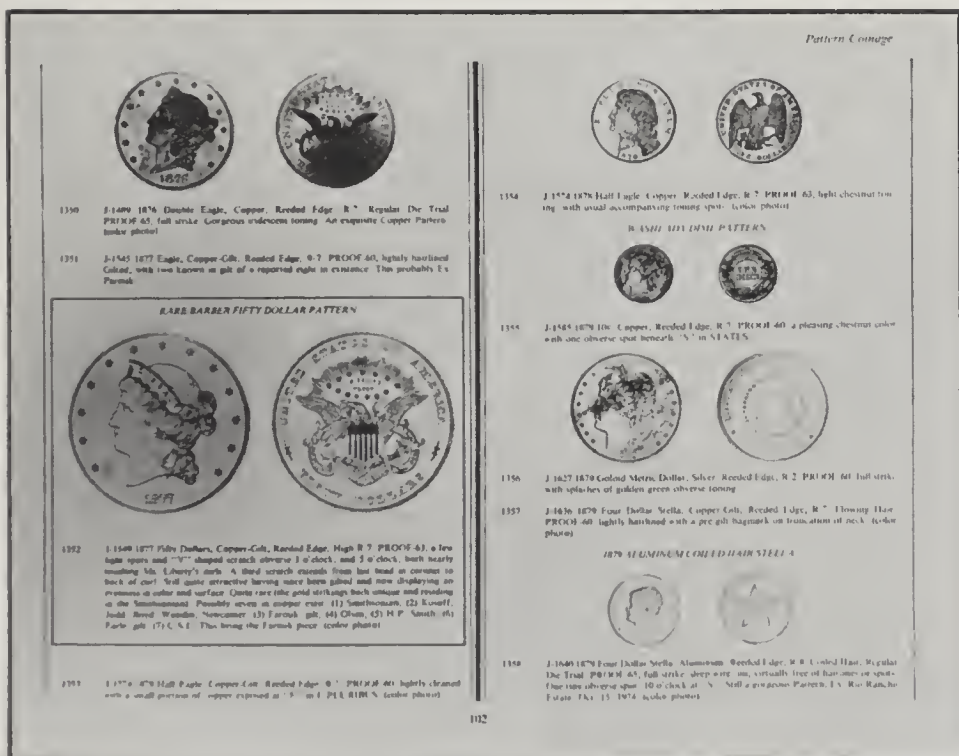

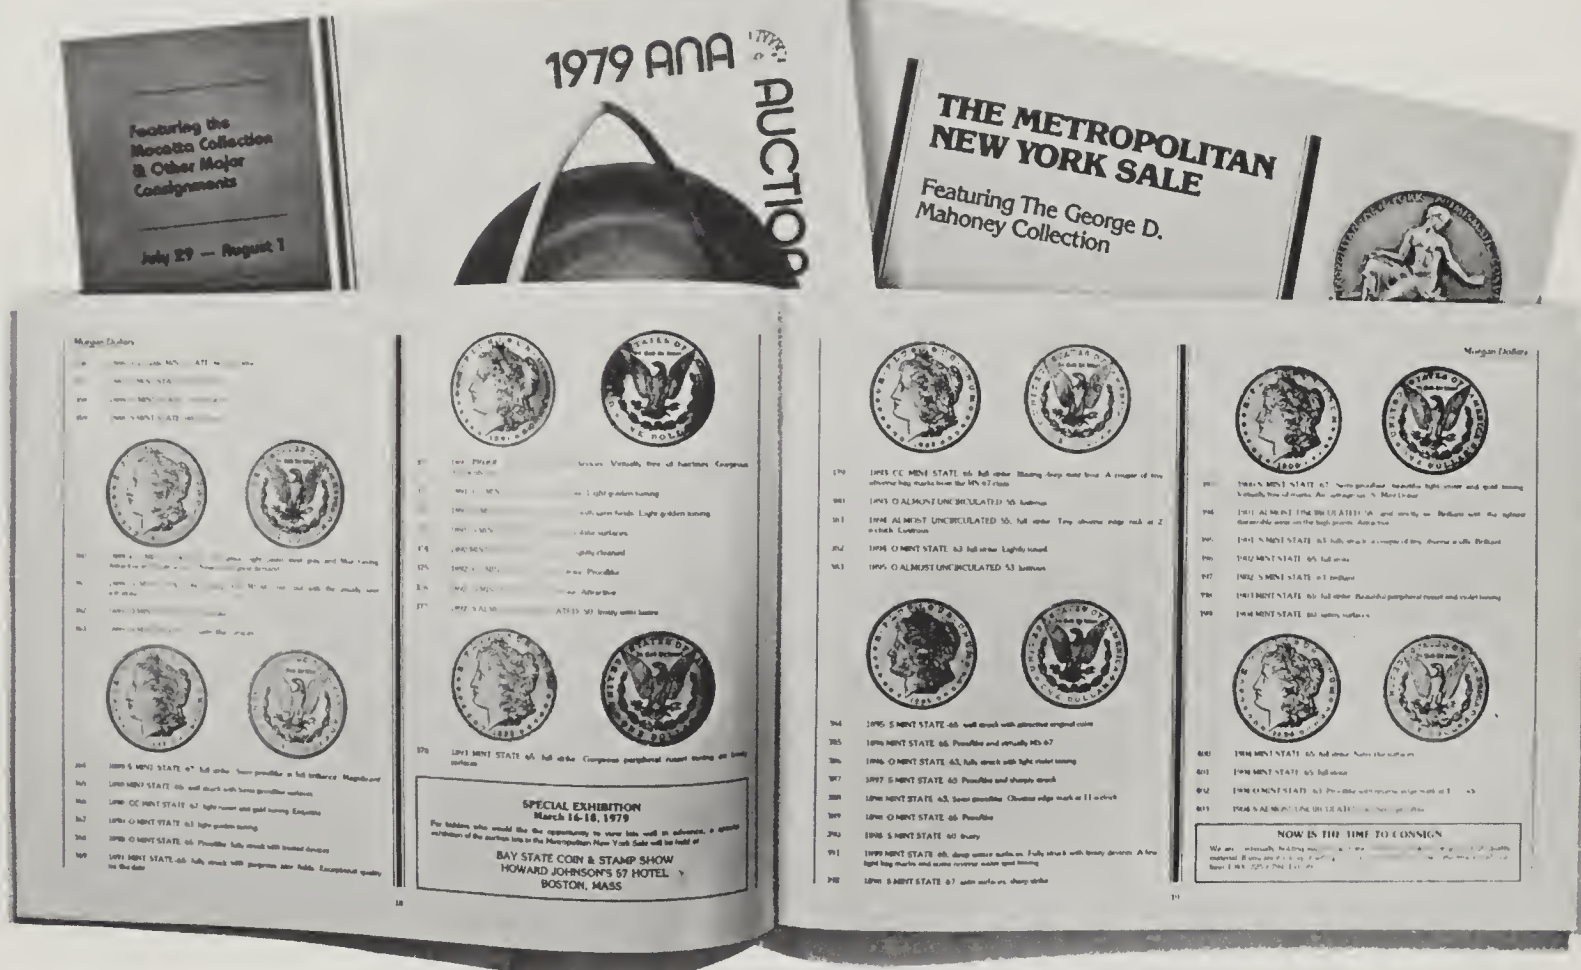

From one of the many balconies that line the interior walls of the Hyatt, guests can look down into the main lobby where one of the hotel's three fine restaurants is located. To the left, glass elevators sweep passengers to one of the Hyatt's 488 rooms.

At ground level, the Hyatt's spacious lobby is decorated with live foliage and a bubbling, centrally-located fountain.

The Catalog

All coins to be sold at the 1979 New England Fall Auction will be handsomely showcased in the 1979 New England Fall Auction Catalog. As with all New England Rare Coin Auctions catalogs, the Fall Auction catalog will be produced in our exclusive "wide format" style. This means that it will measure 11 inches wide x 8½ inches high. This wide shape allows our art staff to attractively arrange more coins on each page. It also enables the catalog to lie open by itself, on a bidder's lap or on a table, for easy reference at auction.

Each page of the 1979 New England Fall Auction Catalog will be carefully laid out in the same style as this sample page from our 1979 A.N.A. Catalog. As you can see, our catalogers describe each coin being sold in enticing and intricate detail — and many of the descriptions are adorned with crystal-clear photography.

Many coins sold at the 1979 New England Fall Auction will also be featured in the catalog's beautiful full-color pages. New England is proud of the color work that has appeared in its recent catalogs, and we take extra care to work closely with our photographers, color separators and printers to produce the most realistic color photography possible.

For complete information on selling your coins at the 1979 New England Fall Auction, call New England's Consignment Administrator Susan Bradley at our toll-free Auction Line: 800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800), Extension #223.

The Gallery Window

A special series profiling
New England Rare Coin Galleries' numismatic experts.

Christopher Tracey

To those who haven't met him personally, Christopher Tracey is New England Rare Coin Galleries' Executive Vice-President in charge of retail sales. To his fellow numismatists, he is a reason for working at New England. In the words of one Account Executive, "I joined the Galleries because of the quality coins here, and because of Chris Tracey. He's one of the finest people I know."

Chris's earliest coin collecting experiences happened so long ago that not even he can remember them. "All I remember is that I spent every penny I earned mowing grass and raking lawns on rare coins. When I met Jim Halperin in Jim's Stamp & Coin Shop — it was in the Fall of 1968, I think — I had more coins in my collection than he had in his entire store." Years later, James Halperin's tiny coin shop in Wayland, Massachusetts, would evolve into New England Rare Coin Galleries.

In January of 1969, Chris became one of Jim Halperin's first employees. "At first, I worked for nothing — for the sheer thrill of being around coins all day. A year later, I was making $100 a week — which wasn't bad for a high school kid working part-time and summers." As Jim's firm grew, Chris became an integral part of it. In describing that growth, Chris's eyes sparkle and he instantly becomes animated. "It's been a real experience. New England Rare Coin Galleries is a success story, without question. We got that way because we always wanted everyone to be 100% satisfied. We weren't in it to make a fast buck and pull out. We were building something to last. We wanted our customers to learn, to be pleased — because we knew that that would create a tremendous following. And that's exactly what we've got today."

Chris's enthusiasm extends, not only to New England, but to the entire rare coin market as well. "It's exciting because, despite all the advances, the market is still in its infancy. About $300 million to $500 million in trading goes on each year in quality rare coins — while, on a good day the stock market records trading of $100 million. So collectors getting into rare coins now are lucky, because as the market grows collectors will be able to ask more and more for their collections."

Market Report

by Tim LaPointe

At the shows

The rare coin market has just come through the most severe test of its strength in history. Despite the staggering amount of choice material offered at the Metropolitan Washington Numismatic Convention, Auction '79, the American Numismatic Association Convention and the 1979 American Numismatic Association Auction, prices for high-quality items continued to increase rapidly. At the A.N.A. Convention, almost every dealer on the bourse floor seemed particularly anxious to buy. New England Rare Coin Galleries alone did over $1,000,000 in dealer-to-dealer sales. Trading emphasis, as always, was on gem-quality coinage. Copper type coins remained quiet, but nickel, silver, and gold type coins were in especially high demand. Prices realized at the A.N.A. Auction topped $4,100,000 — the largest dollar amount ever brought in at auction by a single numismatic auction company. (For some examples of prices realized at the 1979 A.N.A. Auction, see our special 3-page fold-out section elsewhere in this issue.)

Gold

Gold bullion suffered a dramatic $20 drop in price this month — and the demand for common-date circulated $20 U.S. gold dropped along with it. The demand for rare gold, however, increased. In particular, the market for expensive U.S. gold rarities is now in its healthiest shape since 1974. Several gold coins in the $30,000 to $250,000 range — such as 1856-O, 1870-CC and 1927-D Double Eagles — traded hands this month. Type Three Gold Dollars in gem condition dated 1880 to 1889, which used to retail in the $3,000 to $4,000 range, were trading recently for $5,000 or more. Superb common-date Indian Head Half Eagles are also currently trading at between $4,000 and $5,000.

Silver

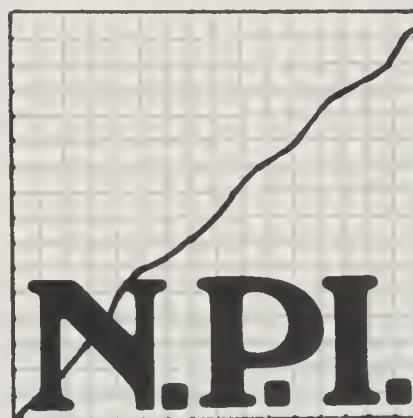

Any gem-quality silver type coin priced at 50% over "current bid" price was instantly snapped up by buyers at the A.N.A. Convention. Most gem silver type coins were going for 50% over bid. Demand for gem and proof Seated Liberty and Barber type coins was especially intense. Proof Morgan Dollars in superb condition were also strong, with dealer trading frequently occurring in the $4,000 to $5,000 range. Other items in the Morgan series are also enjoying strong demand although occasional overgrading has hampered some dealer-to-dealer transactions. In the Peace Dollar series, buyers are paying greater and greater attention to strike. This is because most usual-strike Peace Dollars are easy to locate, but fully struck specimens remain elusive.

Other news

Current demand for high-quality Proof and Mint State Shield Nickels is extremely strong. Scarcer-date Shield Nickels in particular are starting to demand the premiums they have so long deserved. For example, certain scarcer-dates before 1877 are now bringing $100 over the prices of the more plentiful 1882's and 1883's. Gem examples of 1885 Shield Nickels, traditionally considered the "barometers" for the entire series, are now practically non-existent at less than $1,000.

Buffalo Nickels have also proven strong this month. However, like Peace Dollars, more attention is being paid to strike, and fully-struck specimens are commanding substantial premiums.

August, 1979

The figures in this month's Numismatic Price Index indicate weighted average price trends from June 30, 1979 through July 31, 1979.

Copper	↑ 8.5%
Nickel	↑ 7.2%
Silver	↑ 12.0%
Gold	↑ 13.1%
Coins under $500	↑ 7.6%
Coins $501-$2,000	↑ 7.7%
Coins over $2,000	↑ 12.8%
Overall Market Activity	↑ 11.5%

The figures above were derived by tracing the price movements of a balanced, representative sample of U.S. rare coins — including 144 major type and better date coins — in MS-65 or Proof-65 condition for the period of one month. The Numismatic Price Index is compiled by and 1979 by Jay C. Miller.

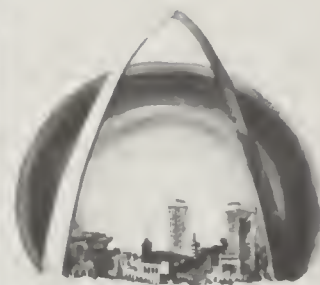

On July 29 through August 2, 1979's edition of the numismatic world's most famous annual event, the American Numismatic Association Convention, was held at the St. Louis Convention Center in St. Louis, Missouri. The air was alive with excitement as several thousand collectors and dealers bought, traded and talked rare coins.

During the daylight hours, the A.N.A. bourse floor was jammed with over 300 tables. Long-time collectors renewed old acquaintances and met new ones. Many exceedingly rare numismatic specimens, like New England's 1866 No Motto Silver Dollar, stood on display for all to see. And hourly drawings were held, with the winners receiving free 1979 A.N.A. Auction posters.

In the evenings, New England Rare Coin Auctions conducted four thrilling sessions of the 1979 A.N.A. Auction, realizing over $4,150,000 for A.N.A. consignors — the largest dollar volume ever realized at a rare coin auction by a single auction company. Among the coins sold: an 1832 Bust Half Dime in MS-67 for $1,850; an 1807 Early Quarter in MS-65 for $17,000; an 1848 CAL. Quarter Eagle in MS-65 for $42,000; an 1863 $3 Liberty Gold Piece in MS-67 for $24,000; and a 1920-S St. Gaudens Double Eagle in MS-63 for $27,000. Many new price records were set at the auction and many scarce numismatic gems that may never be publicly offered again traded hands.

For all of our customers who attended the 1979 A.N.A. and wished it had never ended — and for all of you who were unable to attend — New England Rare Coin Galleries presents this brief glance back at a most memorable event.

New England Makes 40% Appreciation Affordable

And beautiful! Here are 3 extremely high-quality Morgan Dollars that will fit any collector/investor's budget. Each is a specimen from the famous LaVerre Redfield Collection. And during the 3 short months in which we've been offering Redfield Dollars, each of these dates has proven a remarkable investment. According to Coin Dealer Newsletter, the average bid price of these 3 coins in MS-60 has increased by better than 40% — in less than 3 months!

Of course, past performance is not a guarantee of future performance. But right now, the silver dollar market continues to soar. And there's never been a more affordable way to purchase these 3 outstanding Redfields than through these 2 special offers:

1. The Affordable Collection

Purchase a collection of one 1890-S, one 1891-S and one 1897-S, all in MS-65 condition, and save! Individually, these coins would cost a total of $715.00. Now, you can purchase all three at the special collection price of $615.00.

2. The Affordable Groups

Save even more by ordering your Redfields in groups of 10 or 20 specimens of any date listed below.

This date is seldom available in any condition and its 24 appearances in 226 auctions places it tenth in the entire Quarter Eagle series according to rarity by number of appearances. I have seen only two mint state examples and a handful of others above EF. The remainder of the relatively few that I have seen over the years have been all worn. Without a doubt, the 1862-S, is one of the major 'sleepers' in the entire Quarter Eagle series, and any specimen grading EF or better should be considered highly desirable..."	3,950.00

Our Complete Numismatic Services

1. Guarantees

☐ Grading

We guarantee that coins purchased from New England Rare Coin Galleries are graded accurately. They will meet our high standards whenever you decide to sell them. If you sell them to us, we guarantee to purchase them at the same grade as they were when originally purchased from us.

Our grading system is patterned after that of the American Numismatic Association. Developed in 1978, the A.N.A. System is rapidly being adopted by virtually the entire professional numismatic community. Its designations are:

Poor.....	1
Fair.....	2
About Good.....	3
Good.....	4,5
Very Good.....	8,10
Fine.....	12,15
Very Fine.....	20,25,30,35
Extremely Fine.....	40,45
About Uncirculated.....	50,55,58
Mint State.....	60,63,64,65,66,67,69,70
Proof.....	60,63,65,67,69,70

Slash grades indicate obverse/reverse designations. For example, a grade of 65/63 describes a coin with an obverse of Mint State 65 and a reverse of Mint State 63.

☐ Authenticity

We further guarantee that all coins sold by New England Rare Coin Galleries are authentic. To protect our customers, and as proof of our certainty that no altered or counterfeit coin can escape our attention, we guarantee to refund the full purchase price plus 15% compound annual interest, on any non-authentic coin acquired from us.

☐ Documentation

These guarantees are issued in writing with all coins purchased from New England Rare Coin Galleries. Each written guarantee is personally endorsed by two professional numismatists.

☐ Satisfaction

If, for any reason, you are not satisfied with your purchases, you may return them within 45 days of the date you received them for a full refund or replacement.

2. Expert Counseling

Use New England's toll-free number to consult with some of the most knowledgeable numismatists in America. Our expert staff is often sought by government agencies, museums and other coin dealers for advice on authenticity and value. We supply free information on placing coins in retirement plans, building rare coin portfolios and liquidating collections.

3. Selection

Our multi-million dollar inventory of U.S. rare coins is the largest in the world. New England buyers examine several million dollars' worth of coins each week to bring our customers the very best values.

4. Want Lists

Send your Want List to your New England account executive. He'll use our computerized facilities to help you locate any coin you desire. There is no charge for this service, and you are under no obligation to buy. You will, however, have the first opportunity to purchase each coin on your list that we locate.

5. Credit Cards

You can use your Master Charge, VISA or American Express cards to purchase rare coins from New England. Simply fill in the appropriate spaces on your order form.

6. Deferred Payment

Our Deferred Payment Plan makes financing your rare coin purchases convenient. The plan is easy: 25% down payment; 25% each 30 days for a maximum of 90 days; and absolutely no interest charges! $500 is the minimum order allowed under the plan. If you'd like more information, call our toll-free number.

7. Approval Accounts

Our Approval Account Service allows you to personally examine coins before you purchase them. Send for an Approval Account Application. If you qualify, you can have coins sent to you with a simple phone call.

8. Auctions

If you're thinking of consigning your collection to auction, consider New England Rare Coin Auctions. We offer effective professional services. In fact, we've been selected to conduct the 1979 A.N.A. Auction. Our toll-free Auction Line number is: 1-800-225-6794, Extension #99.

9. Purchasing

If you prefer to sell your coins directly, send them insured and by registered mail to New England. We'll reimburse you for postage costs. Or call our Purchasing Manager, Russell Vaughn for more information. Our buying prices are the highest in the industry.

10. Brochures

New England has several informational brochures which we'll send to you free upon request. They include:

- ☐ Rare Coins: The Outstanding Investment
- ☐ Price & Demand in the Numismatic Marketplace
- ☐ Questions & Answers on Consigning to Auction
- ☐ Coins & Keoghs

11. Toll-free Wats Line

Contacting New England is free. Use our toll-free WATS line: 1-800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts, please call: 617-227-8800). We'll be happy to assist you in any way we can.
